DESIGNATION OF THE SPEAKER PRO TEMPORE

PRAYER

The Chaplain, the Reverend Margaret Grun Kibben, offered the following prayer:

Gracious and loving God, all that we have is from You. From You we have inherited the precious gifts of life, liberty, and law.

We ask that You would be gracious unto us according to these promises. Grant us Your favor and be merciful to us as we live into them.

We offer ourselves to You this day, turning our steps in Your direction that we would see Your face reflected in the people You have placed in our lives.

In the dark of night, may we have the strength to rise to give You thanks.

For though the malice of this world dares to drag us into its chaos, Your righteousness is our guide and defense.

Though the winds of change and upheaval swirl around us, Your law holds firm as our anchor.

In response to Your many mercies, may we be a friend to all who fear You. In the fellowship of Your grace, may we seek to be brothers and sisters to all who worship You.

The Earth is filled with Your loving kindness, O Lord. May we, as we go about the living of our lives this day, reflect Your perfect justice and Your steadfast love.

In the strength of Your name we pray.

Amen.
